

Call Report Preparation: RC-C Part I & Related Lending Schedules

LIVE WEBINAR presented: Thurs, August 25, 2011 -- 2:00 – 3:30 pm CST | 1:00 – 2:30 pm MTN

Loan and credit information reporting are essential to regulators when they review the condition of your bank. Accurate loan classification and reporting are critical, but often difficult. Loan accounting personnel are responsible for determining and coding loans by type reported in RC-C and related schedules. However, they often do not attend call report training on loan classification and reporting. This session offers a great opportunity to train your entire loan accounting staff. It will also serve as an essential supplement to annual comprehensive call report training recommended by regulators. Both new and experienced call report preparers and reviewers will find this training valuable.

HIGHLIGHTS

- RC-C Loan Classification Priority
- RC-K Quarterly Averages
- RC-N Past Due and Nonaccrual
- RI Loan Interest and Fees
- RI-B Charge Offs and Recoveries

WHY SHOULD YOU PARTICIPATE?

This session is a cost-effective opportunity to train call report preparers, reviewers, and auditors. Accurate reporting of the lending schedules requires loan accounting staff to understand the reporting instructions. You may train as many individuals as you like for one set price. There will be no travel costs, no time lost from work, and no one will be required to leave the institution.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This informative session will benefit all call report preparers, reviewers, and auditors.
